LA RUE'S PANOPTICON. -Those of our citizens who saw this wonderful piece of art, last even-ing, at Mozart Hall, will go again to night, and take all their friends with them. To those who did not see it last night, we can only say that you have missed beholding the finest exhibition, by far, that ever yet visited this State. It is a derfully life-like piece of mechanism, any one some of which is to be wondered at for years. The lieutenant and his steed, upon the desert battle-field, is one of the most thrilling spectacles ever witnessed. The struggles of the dying steed; how it, after many and painful efforts, finally staggers to its feet; how the faithful brute stoops over its wounded and helpless master, and lifts him by his coat collar, also partially to his feet; standing over him and mournfully licking its own wounds and his, until soldier and steed both lie down and die together-the stricken widow looking with anxous love for her lost husband among the orpses of the fatal field-the storming of Deli-the wreck at sea, with the rescue of the pasengers-these and a hundred other life-like and wonderful scenes cannot be described; they nust be seen. It is wonderful how naturally these figures move and act. The mevements of fleets and armies; the smoke, and fire, and turmoil of a battle-field; the stormy ocean, and the perils of wreek and rescue-all are reproduced nd represented as if to the life. During the representation of a rain storm, ast night, the scene was so natural and perfect that one lady in the audience whispered to her neighbor, "There! it rains, and I've forgotten to bring my rubbers and umbrella! Tas exhibition will be repeated this afternoo at So'clock, and again to-night.

THEATER.-Jessie Brown, or the Siege of Lucknow, upon the bills for to-night, at the theater, is the great success of the season. In all the detail of admirable appointments, seenery, properties, dressing, and evolutions. on if this celebrated and most success ful drama was ever better placed upon the stage. In the part of Jessie Brown, around which so much interest naturally circles, we confess Miss Sallie St. Clair took us by surprise. Admirable as her delineations are in everything she under takes, and versatile as she has proved herself, we were not prepared to hear the Scotch dialect with in a thoroughly Scotch woman, nor to witness such variety and force in the rendition, as the part imperatively de-mands for a faithful portraiture. It was to the life, the noble-hearted, cheerful, brave, and patriotic girl, around whose which the play is founded. The applause throughout the piece was almost constant, but and children and worn soldiers, all fainting for want of food, and the hellish hordes without the frail fort were watching like wolves for dered delicate and sensitive through a wasting he drone of the bagpipes-and she rose and wildest applause we ever heard in a theater broke from the audience, and continued with-fall upon the ear, and the voices of loved ones thrill our souls with pleasure when others, even more soft and musical, scarcely attract a passing thought. Truly that is a happy family where nusic's votaries dwell, and where each voice is raised in harmonious song. Such were the thoughts which were suggested as we listened to the glorious songs and choruses from Men-delsohn and Mozart, as rendered by the Mozart Society, at a rehearsal of which we had the pleasure of being present a few evenings since. This society, which has done more to create and cultivate a popular taste for the highest order of vocal music, seems to be in a most flourishng condition, and we really felt a thrill of pride as we looked around upon the familiar faces and heard the rich vibrations swelling from a hunred throats in one vast harmonious concert, and to think that each voice was a "sound from

It seems the Oppositionists had arranged or Capt. Rousseau to reply to Mr. Yancey. But we venture to say that he has yet so vivid a recollection of his discussion with that gentleman at Floydsburg, that he would about as lief jump into a burning volcano as to meet Seler again in debate. But, in all seriousness, the idea of Rousseau attempting a discussion with Yancer is about as absurdly ridiculous a thing as we have seen suggested this season.

Woodlawn Trotting Races THIRD DAY. There was a very fair attendance, notwit standing the dreary state of the weather, a Woodlawn yesterday, and the excitement in r gard to the matches is unabated. In the double-team match yesterday then were only two entries, consisting of Bolly Lew-is and Ike Cook, and Miller's Damsel and John Watts. The former were the favorites at the odds of two to one at the start, but the first heat changed the betting to three to one on the latter, and more than one was heard to say, in speaking of the mare, that she was indeed unisell, as they learned to their sorrow. But t is due to the former team to say that they had ever gone together before, whilst the others had. True to the machinelike operations of the track, the horses were called for the

FIRST HEAT. First Mile. - The horses made two false starts before they got away; the drum tapped an even "go," with Bolly and Cook at the pole, and Mil-ler's Bamsel and Watts on the outside. At the first turn, Damsel and mate flew the track, and, quick as lightning, Bolly and Cook shot to the front and opened a gap of nearly two lengths at the quarter; going up the back side, the sorre mare and her companion settled to work and speedily closed the gap, and, at the half-mile mark, had half a neck the vantage. Here the driver could do was to let him "went," for he would not and did not trot, and, in the vain task of pulling him to his work, Miller's Damseland mate had an excellent opportunity to increase the distance of daylight, and, with six oper lengths to spare, they crossed the score in 2:493

This proved to be the case, for all through the secmuch more like circus than trotting horses, and t was much as they could do to save their distance Miller's Damsel and Watts trotted hon estly and squarely, and passed under the string easy winners of the heat in 2:40%, having ac complished the two miles in 5:30%. The result of this heat showed that the "best laid scheme o' mice and men gang aft aglee," and those who had wagered their hundreds on Bolly and Cook now began to look around for places to "hedge Very little opportunity was offered, however as the backers of Miller's Dameel and Watts were too confident of success to allow the other party any chance of getting even, and many wry faces were noticeable about the track, when ime was called for the SECOND HEAT. First Mils .- The horses got well away, but scarcely had the drum sounded, when Miller's Damsel and Watts made a break, and fell be hind, which let Cook and Bolly lead to the quarter. But they only staid front for a short while, for the Damsel and Watts answered the eall of their drivers, and went forward and nsurped the lead, a position which they main-tained without trouble through the heat, passing the stand, on the first mile, six or seven engths ahead, in 2:43. Second Mile .- This mile needs no description: t was a plain case that Bolly and Cook had no show, and their friends realized the fact with commendable fortitude. At the first turn, Miller's Damsel and Watts struck a gait that surprised even their most sanguine backers, and without once forgetting their duty, they crossed the score at the terrific speed of 5:1914, hav-Temple and Rifle in their memorable trot over the Long Island Course in 1848. while on the subject of Democracy in Christian county, we desire to add that we were not a little gratified, on our visit there, to find nearly all of the "old guard," those who labored for the party when it was considered almost a disgrace to be a Democrat in that county, still true to their ancient faith, and working zealously for Breckinridge and lane. Some of the old veterans in the cause have gone to their long homes, and sleep the sleep that knows no waking; but their worthy dessendants have not forgotten their teachings, and our word for it, the principles of old-fashined Democracy will yet prevail in the good old county of Christian. God bless her noble and gallantsons! We know how to sympathise with them in their struggles; for it was there we learned our first political lessons, and there, shoulder to shoulder with them, for long dark years, we fought for principle alone. The Danger Before Us. The decisive day, remarks the Baltimore Rethroughout the country is becoming more in Republican party, elated by the results of the State elections, is looking forward with gloating the General Government promises, and revelpeet of trampling upon the South. The South is preparing to meet the issue in that manner which is befitting her dignity and patriotism. The great conservative masses of the country seem almost paralyzed at the threatening aspect of affairs; and not knowing where to turn, in ing trotted the second best double team race | the crisis to come upon us, which might be ever trotted in the United States, and only ex- averted by their union and action. It is imposcelled by the wonderful performance of Flora sible to put aside the danger by any affected stands broadly forth, patent to all who do not shut their eyes to the facts, that the Union is in imminent danger, the peace of the country is most seriously threatened, and we are fast be elected President by the Black Republican party, the peaceful union of the United States is at an end, and henceforth our country will be the theater of discord and bloody strife. This may yet be prevented. Near as the evil is, it may be avoided. A hearty union of all who desire to perpetuate the peace and blessings of the Union may yet prevent the success of that fanatical party whose triumph must be followed by evils which it is painful to every our fellow-citizens so blinded by party feeling, so embittered by party prejudice, that they will knowingly and willingly rush on in the mad support of individuals while the great interests of our common country and common humanity are forgotten or despised. We have done our best to avert the evil. We have appealed to the good sense and the patriot ism of our countrymen; we have, as faithful watchmen upon the ramparts of the Constitution, warned them of the approaching danger. If they will not listen to our appeals, nor heed our warnings, the threatened evil may come upon them, and the long agony of the future make them realize their folly and their madness when it is too late.

No finite mind can see through the dim vista of the future, and unfold the horrors attendant apon a civil and servile war. While it is not yet too late to put away these horrors from us, let every good man unite to preserve the constitu-tional compact free from the blighting touch of

A MELANCHOLT BEREAVEMENT.—The death of Thomas Richards, one of the oldest and most esteemed merchants of Philadelphia, is amnounced. There were creumstances attending it of an unusually affecting character. Thursday was the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage, and preparations were made at his house for celebrating the golden wedding. The wedding of a daughter was also to take place at the same time. But just before the hour for the assembling of the company, Mr. Richards, who was in his 81st year, and quite infirm, as well as somewhat excited in anticipation of the day's festivities, was suddenly taken ill and died. Of sourse, the company was not received, and the marriage of the daughter was postponed. The sad event has thrown a deep gloom over a large circle of relatives and friends. A MELANCHOLT BEREAVEMENT.-The death

DELIVERED AT

THE COURT HOUSE! CITY OF LOUISVILLE, OCTOBER 23d, 1860.

[CONCLUDED.] That might have done very well, but for this striking, important political fact. Who was the first man who broke faith with the party? Who was the first man who broke faith with the countries that the Kanaga, Nebraska bill I was Constitution of Kentucky, recognizing your right of property—an equal fair Democratic Constitution. When we had succeeded in making that, Mr. Buchanan redomained that Kansas should be admitted with that Constitution. They had the privilege of framing the Constitution with or without slavery. They did frame it in their own way and served.

positively asserts, are allied with the Black Republicans against Breckinking.

"Y" writes us from Carrollton, Ky, on the 18th, giving us an account of the raising of a pole by the Democrats of Carroll on the day preceding, at which great enthusiasm prevailed. An address was delivered by our talented young friend, Wm. Masox, who spoke eloquently in favor of the principles of the National Democratic party, and with the happiest effect. Our correspondent says Carroll will give an increased Democratic majority.

"BICKERIN," writing from Bath county, on the 18th inst., tells us that a great reaction is going on in that part of the State, in which Breckinkinge will get a larger majority than any Democrat has received for years.

"Harold" gives us from Woodville, Mississippi, a cheering account of the prospects of Breckinkinge and Lane in that State, which, he assures, will go for the Democratic candidates by 20,000 over both DOUGLAS and BELL.

"CANDOR" writes us from Rutherford county, Tenn., that "The State of Tennessee is just as Kentucky is to go against DOUGLAS. Tell the Breckinridge men in Kentucky, and let them and his party say that the people of Kansas shall not have their way, but the way of Mr. Douglas. Mr. Douglas got up and said, "In my opinion my way is the best; I demand that this Constitution shall be rejected." It was rejected. The Kansas law was abolished. The compact made between the North and the South was abolished by this act upon the part of Mr. Douglas. He goes in for unqualified non-intervention. He says that Congress should never interfere, no matter what the Legislatures of the Territories may do. If they do anything wrong that is to be left to the courts. You see how inconsistent the action of Mr. Douglas is. He called in Congress to interfere and reject that Constitution, and send it back to the people. It was sert back. Kansas was rejected by this interference by Congress. The very first blow upon the people of Kansas cane from Mr. Douglas. He was not able to divide the Democratic party by the Democracy. Where did he get his allies? He went among the Black Republicans for them. There were but six Southern men, headed by Mr. Crittenden, of Kentucky, in his favor. He had the undivided vote of the Black Republicans in the Senare and in the House, and it was this that aided Mr. Douglas to divide the Democratic party. Yet he says that Alabama initiated the agitation—that Alabama was a leader of the secession movement, because she called upon the Democratic party to acknowledge the binding force of the Supreme Court decision. Alabama might have passed it by—not asked for the indorsement, but when the man who considered himself the leader of the Democratic party, called tor Congressional intervention against the interest of the South—himself warred on the Democratic cabinet, the Democratic Senate, and the Democratic Pesident, and a number of Democratic members of

Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Dourlas were walking from their boarding-house to the capitol they were speaking of what the Supreme Courtcould do. Mr. Stevenson was trying to get Mr. Douglas to stop his opposition to the Democracy, and save himself from the headlong course he was driving. Mr. Stevenson asked him why he would not abide by the decision. "Sir," said Mr. Douglas, when the SupremeCourt decides a point, I am going to abide by it—I will abide by that particular point, but I will never abide by more than the point that is decided. There is now a case which is about to be brought up which is the right of a Territory to tax Mustang ponies—to discriminate between Mustang and Indian ponies. That brings up the question whether the Territories can exclude or discriminate in relation to any other species of properate in relation to any other species of proper. When that is decided I will accept it. Then iv. When that is decided I will accept it. Then I will raise another question, and then another. If they decide that against me, then I will raise another question. Mr. Sterenson, your child and your grand-child, and my child and my grand-child will be old men and yet the Supreme Court will never have settled this question."—Is that good faith to the agreement he made to abide by the decision of the Judges? Do you think that the South understood that to be the agreement when they agreed to the Kansas bill and framed the Cincinnati platform? Do you believe and the people believe in dealing with a political trickster instead of statesmen? Do you think we want to deal with a man who you think we want to deal with a man who would concel his mind from the people and teil them what is actually false? Do you believe that if the South had understood Mr. Douglas as believing that when the Supreme Court decides one point in a question at a time Commonwealth vs. Jas. I have one case down where I live that has been in court so long that it is now of age twenty-one years, and I don't know how many more years it may continue. Possibly my son, who is now practicing law with me, may inheris the case. It has been in the Supreme Court of the United States twice. In my own State it has been in the Supreme Court wice. It will be twice decided pretty soon. I have another case against a fellow, and I don't know how long I will keep it. My man has naid me a cool deal of money. it. The costs have already amounted to $1,000, and there is no telling when they will end. I such ere is no telling when they will end. [Laugh-

OGRAPHICALLY REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE LOUISVILLE COURIER.] But Mr. Douglas opposed the work of the upreme Court decision in Illinois. He op-Supreme Court decision in minios. He op-posed the work of the Chichmati platform in the Sanate of the United States, and he tri-umphed over the Democracy by the aid of the Black Republican party. [Appiause,] Ala-bama said her rights were too dear, the value of bama said her rights were too dear, the value of her property too great to permit herself tobe tri-flad with by Mr. Douglas. [Applause.] Her people wish to move from the lands they now occupy to the lands in the Territories, and when they do this, they want to take their prop-erty to the Territories with them, and to have the privilege of enjoying it there unmolested; therefore, we asked the Jemocracy to add to the Cincinnait platform what they agreed to add to Cincinnati platform what they agreed to add to t, the indorsement of the Supreme Court de-sision. I want to give you apiece of history on this subject. I am called the extreme ultra cision. I want to give you a piece of history on this subject. I am ealled the extreme ultraman of the South, who was trying to force the party to a decision on that question. When the party to a decision on that question. When the party was about to be divided at Charleston, I was called upon to know what Alabama wanted. I wrote down that she wanted the Cincinnati platform, with an indorsement of the Dred Scott opinion, and that was all. This was taken to Mr. Richardson, Mr. Douglas' friend, and what was the reply? That they refused that they would not give us the Cincinnati platform as we wanted it! We, of Alabama, were willing to take the Cincinnati platform, but we were told that we must take something else. Yet I caused all that split, as Mr. Richardson said. Mr. Richardson said it was better for us to be out than in the Convention, therefore, I urged that proposition. Suppose my proposition had been accepted, the South and the North would have been together on the Cincinnati platform, and they would be no reconcibility would have been accepted, the South and the North would have been together on the Cincinnati platform, and they would be no reconcibility metric. have been together on the Cincinnati platform, and there would be no responsibility resting upon any person for the division. [Cheers.] and there would be no responsibility resting upon any person for the division. [Cheers.]—
Now, where rests the responsibility? I do my best to keep the party on the platform that indorsed the decision of the Supreme Court and the platform—without that I never could accept. There was the Cincinnati platform, with the decision of the Court reported. Douglas' friends voted to strike out that part of the platform indorsing the decision of the Supreme Court. [Applause.] Now then I charge them with being the authors of the disruption—the authors of the disruption—the authors of the disruption—the authors of the disruption—the authors of the supreme Court, so that that decision of the Supreme Court, so that that decision never should be of any benefit to the Southern States. I have shown you what is Democratic history. I now propose to take you to the precedents of the fathers. In this same speech in Louisville, Mr. Douglas said that the Democratic party is now as in former times, arrayed in deadly hostility to these parties, alluding to the National Democracy, with Breckinridge and Lane at the head. Go back, my friends, to the formation of the Louisiana Territory. When that Territory was formed, Thomas Jefferson was President of the United States. What did he do?—What did Congress do? They framed a TerritorialGovernment for Louisiana in 1894. In the act framing that Government was this clause: "That all laws passed by the General Assembly should be submitted to the Congress of the United States for approval or disapproval, and if disapproved, should be null and void." The very first territorial act was precisely like that of 1850. It denied territorial supremery, and indorsed the doctrine of Congressional supremery. [Applause.] The Ferritorial Government of Florica was framed under Mr. Monroe. Under that man another clause similar to that incorporated in the Louisiana act was put in, that should be submitted to the Congress of the United States. These are the precedents of our ancestors. They said Squatter Sovereignty was ancestors. They said squatter sovereigns as not constitutional. Congressional supremacy was the doctrine of our fathers, and continued so until we left it to the Supreme Court, and that Supreme Court decided that the opinion was correct. [Applause.] In 1834, when Andrew Jackson was President—Mr. Douglas is accustomed to say that Andrew Jackson was a Democrat—in former times, Mr. Douglas was a Democrat, and since he hargone off, he thinks now that Andrew Jackson was a Squatter Sovereign—in 1884, the Garnet family, who, lived in Virginia, owned some slaves in Florida.—The Florida Territorial Legislature passed an act is a price of the dollars per head upon Garnet's negroes, while they did not tay other negroes as much. Garnets, feeling themselves aggrieved petitioned Congress for relief against this act of the Territorial Legislature—this dissrimination against their slave property. Here is a case in point. A committee of members of the House was appointed, and that committee reported that they had examined the precedents and had found out that Congress had the power, and that it was its duty, to protect all kinds of slave property. They then reported a bill repealing the law of the Ferritorial Legislature taxing these negroes, and made it a penalty against any officer who should try to carry out the legislative act, punishing him with fine and imprisonment. It is pretty plain that Andrew Jackson was not a Squatter Sovereign. It is pretty plain that Andrew Jackson, were he living this day, would east his vote against Stephen A. Douglas, and in favor of Breckinridge and Lane, as sustaining the doctrines of the Democratic party. [Cheers.]

Mr. Douglas is accustomed to use another kind of phrase. He will say that the Federal Government has nothing to do with the domestic relations of the people—nothing to do with the relations of husband and wife, for instance—that they shell regulate such matters for themselves. I say the federal Government used to interfere between man and wife. Look at the United States statutes. You will find it, I think—it cannot give you the very date on which it was done. It was in Florida it occurred. On the 2d day of July, 1836, I think it was, the Legislature of the Territory of Florida diverced four acts of divorce between man and wife.—Now, says Mr. Douglas, they have the right to do that. Congress cannot interfere with the domestic relations. What did our fathers any These

No man or delime or apprinting that I knew sell the se time a great fact starce all in the face that you have suppressed the utterance of that patriotism. Yon refuse to give expression to that intelligence. You refuse to tell the people what arts you can use to save them. The Union is in danger. You refuse to tell the people what arts you can use to save them. The Union is in danger. You refuse to tell the people the benefit of your advice. Is it right? I do not ask any public reply. I now appeal to your honor, to your better consciousness, and would wake up that loyalty and patriotism that underlies that was toverlying mass of party prejudice. I would wake that up. I would act like a great volcanic power, and would upheave it and throw it in vast masses that a loyal, patriotic, brave and intelligent citizen mightaione stand forth, disclothed of party brejudice. Why does not your party speak out for him? You say there is danger. You are corstantly telling the people there is danger of disunion. You make more war on your Southern friends than on the Lincoln party. Your papers are than on the Lincoln party. Your papers are filled more with attacks on Kentucky men than

You make more were on your Southern friends than on the Lincoln party, Your papers are filled more with attacks on Kentucky men than on the Lincoln party, which will destroy us both unless we check its rapid progress onward. What is the great underlying primiple of this government in which the people are the sovereigns and the office holders are the severaits? The office holder being a public servant, and the people ask acandiante for his opinion, what is his duty? It is plain.—His duty is to speak out. Does Mr. Bell speak out? He is deaf to every interrogation. His course is inconsistent with the policy of those who nominated him. They should be permitted to tell what their political opinions are.—But they refuse to tell anybody anything concerning their views. That is like saying, I am going to run this race with my lips padlocked; I mean to gather men against and for protection—men in Tennessee against it, and men in Alabama for it. [Applause.] I think I have described the Bell men in these States.—Birds of all sorts of colors will often be found in the nests of this Bell party. We are merely caught as birds. You are not reasoned with as intelligent people. That is not fair to the Constitution. It is not fair to the decision of the Supreme Court. It is in accordance with your stand last year that parties should make known their principles. But you are told to look at Bell's past record. You need not tell me that Mr. Everett is not a good Northern man. I besieve him to be a good man, a loyal man, a well meaning man, but Mr. Everett is opposed to us in our institutions. He has said that he believes Congress has the power to abolish the slave trade between the States, and should refuse to admit any more slave States into the Union. Admiring Mr. Everett's entitivated intellect and scholarship, together with his good character as a man, I would be doing an injustice to my country to put him into a position where he would carry out his avowed political principles. Then take Mr. Bell and Mr. Everett and you have a Now, my friends, look at the position of the daily laborer who wants to vote right on this question. How is he to ascertain the truth of the matter? He can't hunt over 75,000 pages of printed matter. You may tell him to take the Journal's judgment, or the Democrat's judgment, but I wouldn't give you a fig for either. They may insist that Mr. Bell is all right, but don't you know they are swayed by party prejudice. Therefore the people don't get to ascertain the truth—they do not get the whole truth. Take the instance of the daily laborer, who works for a dollar a day. He merely makes enough to keep himself going from one end of the year to the other. He cannot lose a day's labor without feeling it. Do you think that man can lose a week's or a month's work to scarch 75,000 pages of the Congressional Globe to find out what kind of a record John Bell has? Then, again, there are not ten copies of that ticket for which I spoke last week. I tried to ignore the fact that I was a friend of Mr. Breckinridge, and exhorted all Union-loving, Constitution-loving elements of the North to units and vote for that ticket that could best Mr. Linsoln. I do so here to-day. Who is the man I give you merely the judgment of a gentleman who has traveled through the Southern and the Northern States. I say there is but one man playing the game in this battle with earnestness and power. That man is John C. Breckinridge. [Applause.] There is but one man in the field who frankiy and intelligently avows the doctrines of Kentucky as avowed last year, giving the right to the people of every section to prefection of all their rights. There is but one such candidate in the field, and that man is the honored sou of Kentucky. [Applause.] Mr.

The Duty of All Good Citizens—The State of the Contest—An Appeal for Breckinridge and Lane.

This is the last opportunity we will have to urge upon some of our readers the great, vital, attacks upon him as a gentleman or a citizen, overwhelming importance of the issues they not even when the false and shameless invasion are called upon to meet and decide in but little of the privacy of Mr. Breckingides's business ore than one week from to-day-issues affecting directly the dearest interests of the Ameri- sponse that was ready at our hand. As a polican people, and indirectly the hopes and happiness of the civilized world. Never before has him, and a somewhat careful study of his eareer exercise of the right of suffrage imposed as a public man warrants us in asserting that, such responsibilities upon our people-respon-sibilities each must meet for himself, for his family, and for his posterity to the latest generation. At such a crisis, it is not unreasonsble to hope that every citizen who is permitted to record his vote for one of the candidates for President of the United States will prove superior to the trammels of party, and rise above the impulses of prejudice and passion—that he will act deliberately and understandingly, for his ountry, and not for his party or his candidate. If there is one man who cannot thus act, and thus vote, no matter who he may be, nor what his state or position, he is unworthy the privilege he enjoys under the Constitution and laws

Except the aspirant to office and the professional politician, the interests of the people are the sa ne-what will benefit one man must benefit all others; and that which unfavorably affects one interest, must unfavorably affect every other interest in the country. The Bell men, and the Breekinridge men, and the Douglas men have common interests to promote, common rights to maintain, a common country to preserve, and a common Union to perpetuate. A vote for BELL is not a vote alone to secure his election and the short lived success of professional politicians, but it is a vote to affect for better or for worse the whole country and all the people in it, not for one year alone or for four years, but for all time to come. And so with a vote for BRECKINRIDGE or a vote for Doug-Las. It matters little to you, reader, whether fascs to tell us what his views me-to tell us how he will preserve the Union. When his own friends have written to him, ask-John Doe, whom you never saw, or Richard Roe be President, or whether A., B. or C. has this or that office; but it concerns you and equally concerns your neighbor and your neighbor's neighbor to see that whoever administers | the inquirer to the journals of Congress and the Government shall do so in accordance with the Constitution of the country, with a proper regard for your rights, and for the promotion of the public good. And if you permit any prejudice, or any preference, or any party obligations even, or any obstinacy of opinion, or any pride or self-will to sway you to give a vote which your judgment or your conscience tells you should be rendered for another, you do that than which it were better that with a mill stone about your neck you were thrown into to set, and for and against almost every public the sea—you do that which injures your neigh-bor of the opposite party, indeed, but injures such a record, referred to under such circumthe sea-you do that which injures your neighhim only as it injures you. question of nucre policy or expediency. Shall the Constitution be upheld, the reserved rights of the States and of the citizens of the States he maintained, and equal and exact justice done to all?—these are the questions to be determined, and the answer given to them settles the fate of the Union. Are these questions, fellow-citizens of Kentucky, and of the South, of sufficient gravity to demand your carnest attention and call for your most patriotic action? Can you to meet such an issue divest yourselves of every feeling save that of love for the whole-country? If so, we may hope for the best.

The day is at hand for action. There are four candidates for President. One of them must be elected. For whom shall the people of Kenucky and of the South vote? Lincolx, the head and representative of astrictly sectional and aggressive party, we all agree, must be defeated if we would preserve the Union and maintain our rights. As far as he is concerned, there is but one opinion in the slaveholding States. Bis defeat is a matter of primary importance. How can that be accomplished? This is one of the most important questions practically that presents itself to the minds of many, for upon the answer to it depends the votes of enough to determine the course of more than one State. How can Lincoln be defeated? To answer this, we must see how the battle is set? For lincoln stand thirteen States certain. For Briegerian Missouri, doubtful. Four free States, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Oregon.

Again, September 17th, 1827, he wrote:

"Influenced by these considerations, I reiterate that may opinions of the present Administration are in accordance with what I believe to be those of the great body of the Republicans of the may county or Congressional District in the free States. Mr. Breckinkinger, in addition to the thirteen slaveholding States and California, is almost certain to get Oregon and New Jersey.—Should he carry, as we believe he will, Kentucky and Missouri, the vote of either New Light of p. 18 ANY COMBINATION THAT HAS York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Oregon. tucky and Missouri, the vote of either New though the Lincolnites in the last named States are confident, we have strong hopes that one of them at least will be wrested from their graph; we have strong hopes that one properties the strong hopes that one of them at least will be wrested from their graph; we have strong hopes and the strong hopes that one of them at least will be wrested from their graph; we have strong hopes and the strong hopes are strong hopes are strong hopes and the strong hopes are strong hopes are strong hopes are strong hopes are strong hopes and the strong hopes are stro York or Pennsylvania would elect him; and Grasp: we have strong hopes that BreckinRIDGE and Lane will be elected by the people.

This, in our opinion, is the position of the contest. We may be mistaken; but it is our judgment based upon the best information we have ment based upon the best information we have been able to obtain, through an extensive correspondence from all parts of the country, and conversations with the leading men of both sections of the Union. If we are correct in the opinion we have formed of the strength of the candidates, very much, indeed, depends on our friends in Kenthe 4th of July, 1827, at a public dinner given tucky and Missouri. Should either one of these States separate kerself from her Southern sis ville, he proposed the following toast, designatters, and vote for Mr. Bell, as Maryland did for ing Mr. CLAY as the "GUILTY STATESMAN: FILLMORE in 1856, it would do him no good, and might defeat an election by the people. The most that such action by either of these States could accomplish, would be to throw the Presidency into the House, where Lincoln would lack but one vote of an election, and where the choice of a President by bribery, corruption, intrigue, and management would either result in the success of the Black Republican candiidolater at his own estimate, and Mr. CLAY proving a rising statesman, Mr. BELL became a date, or make the triumph of that party in 1864 inevitable. Should both of them go for Bancastatesman" at whose shrine he was then wor-shiping. But in 1848, he saw that Mr. CLAY's INRIDGE and LANE, their election by the people ambition was not to be realized, and he was among the first to abandon his fortunes. CLAY'S will be rendered probable; and their success landing as they do in direct entagonism to the Black Republicans, will be a triumph of princithe Presidency; but Mr. Ball joined with those ple from which we may expect the happicet who struck him down in the house of his friends, and helped make Taxlor President. States, each having such an interest in the defeat of LINCOLN, each so much devoted to that can party would so much endanger, may we not appeal to the Douglas men and the Bell men to vote for Breckinkings and Lanz and against Lincoln and Hamlin? UNITED STATES HOTEL, October 2, 1880 TO MR. HUGH WILKINS: TO MR. HIGH WILKINS:

I MIE CARPET LINING put down for us by you is the account of the kind that we have ever seen that we must allow of the kind that we have ever seen that we must allow the the kind that we must be are we pleased with it, that we would be very untilling to have another carpet (old or new) put down, without it.
The difference between a room where it is used and where it is not, is so striking as to arrest the attention of the most unobservant. It is worth more than its cost in the increased softness and pleasantness it gives the corpet, and we think you do not overrate its economy in
I our recommendation of it will as a savent.
If our recommendation of it will all the second of the sales, we cheerfully give it, feeling we do your custom-es a much greater kindness than we do you.

VESTERDAY AFTERNOON'S DISPATCHES LATER FROM EUROPE! ARRIVAL STEAMSHIP CITY OF WASHINGTON.

Details of the Battle of Volturno! THE GARIBALDIANS VICTORIOUS. 8T. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 23.—The mail steam-ship City of Washington, which left Liverpool on Wendnesday via Queenstown on the 11th inst., passed Cape Race at 7 o'clock this evening. The dates by the City of Washington are four days later than by the Arabia.

The steamship Jura arrived at Liverpool on the 9th. the 9th.

St. Johns, Oct. 23.—The name by the City of Washington is mainly confined to details of the battle of Volturno. The Neapolitans, estimated at 30,000 strong, attacked the Garibaldians on the 1st, under cover of a thick mist, and carried some positions, and for a time succeeded in driving back the Garibaldians, whose numbers did not reach half that number. Garibaldia went forward, revolver in hand, cheering on his men, and after a desperate fight of eight hours duration, the Neapolitans were broken and routed, and were parsued close under the walls of Capua. A brigade of Germans was cut of from the main body of the Neapolitan army and driven to the mountains.

of Capita. A brigade of Germans was cut of from the main body of the Ncapolitan army and driven to the mountains.

The Garibaldians took 5,000 prisoners, and it was estimated that the Ncapolitans had 3,000 killed and wounded. The loss of the Garibaldians was stated between 1,200 and 7,000 men. The Royalists subsequently made a sortie from Capua to the rescue of the Garman brigade, but were repulsed. The King of Naples and his brother were present at the battle. Rumors were current that Capua had surrendered, and the bombardment of the town was progressing, but neither had been confirmed. The line of the Volturno was still strongly protected, and it was said the Ncapolitans were prepared to defend their positions. Some Sardinian troops assisted the Garibalcians in the battle.

Garlbaldi had called on the King of Sardinia to go to Naples, and to send him 14,000 men immediately.

The Piedmontese troops had entered the Nca-The Piedmontese troops had entered the Neapolitan territory.

It was reported that three of the great powers had protested against the entry of Sardinla to Naples.

Mazzini had entered Naples at the request of the Pro-Dictator.

Advices from the Papal States indicate no change in the state of affairs there. From New York.

New York, Oct. 24.—The candle factory of O. P. Menire, of Staten Island, formerly occupied by Garibaldi, was burnt yesterday, together with several adjoining buildings.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says: Orders have gone out hence to the States of the Northwest directing the Administration Democrats to vote for the Douglas electoral ticket.

The same correspondent says: I hear of the default of the postmaster at Keokuk, Iowa, and also of another in a leading town in Illinois, either Alton or Quiney.

The steamship Africa sailed to-day for Liverpool with 700 passengers, including the Marquis and Marchionness Chander, and Miss Hosmer, the sculptor. She also took $14,000 in specie.

Memphis Items. Memphis Hems.

Memphis, Oct. 24.—The steamer Fred Tron, bound from Memphis to Cincinnati, with one thousand bales of cotton, sunk at Island 10. The boat is a total loss.

Henry A. Montgomery, Superintendent of the Central Pacific Telegraph Company, successfully laid a mile of cable here.

Douglas' reception yesterday was enthusiastic. He addressed a large assemblage to-day.

Explosion. LEF, Mass., Oct. 24.—One of the boilers at Platner & Smith's new paper mill in this town, exploded this morning at five o'clock, severely and probably fatally injuring John Dacher, of Kent, Conn. The damage to the property by fire and the explosion, amounts to $6,000. The same building was seriously damaged last June and has just been repaired. Invitation to Yancey, Wise, and Cobb.

PHTTSBURG, Oct. 24.—The Breckinridge De-mocracy have invited Messrs. Yancey, Wise, and Cobb to address them at an early day. Sudden Death. Toronto, C. W., Oct. 24.—Hon. G. Debli-quiere died suddenly last night of aploplexy. He went to bed in his usual health.

THE FOLLY OF TRIPLING WITH DISEASE THE FOLLY OF TRIPLING WITH DISEASE is frequently evinced by the direful results that are self-syldent in every walk of life. Hereditary disease, arising from early indiscretions, and the deteriorating effect of mercury and other mineral agents, are both to be deplored and prevented. The great object is carried out in severy line of the book "HUMAN FRAILTY or PHISIO-LOGICAL RESEARCHES," which has been compiled after much study and research, and is embellished with rolored engravings, illustrating the different phases of vital and functionary disease. BRANDRETH'S PILLS

Are growing more in favor, with the public. It is now conceded they are the best purgative yet put forth from the world of medicine. The time will surely arrive when they will supercede all other purgatives whatever. The ingredients of which they are composed can scarcely be obtained by druggists or the makers of other pills, Dr. Branderen has them grown and prepared without regard to the expense. And this care to make a popular purgative is appreciated, as their sales indicate. Other purgatives are dragging a flickering existence. And yet they may have some merit. But Branderen's Pills are safe and sure—safe, because they operate solely to impure humors. No valuable fluid is touched; only effect or wornout material, which, when taken out of the body, leaves it stronger. They are as pleasant as a truly effective medicine can be, To say that they will not sometimes give pain would not be true, but the pain they give is only because they remove those crude and bad humors from the blood which are the occasion of disease. They open nature's avenues, and this cannot always be done pleasantly.

75 AL CAUTION. SPURIOUS AMERICAN WATCHES.

WE are credibly informed that some of the Jewelers of sville and other places are selling counterfeit and nanufactured at Waltham, Mass., and particularly a for may be of service to the public to be informed that there is no manufactory of watches in that place. The genuine article of one grade of our watches is named P. S. BART are marked " Walthoon, Mass."

It is hardly necessary to state that such watches are like ours in form only, and are made upon the ame old system that has already flooded the country with watches that are not only vexatious and a constant source of expense, but really useless to the owners, and when bought which our watches have attained. We therefore caution the public against buying our watches from any person who cannot furnish a certificate of genuineness for every watch offered for sale, bearing the number of the watch and the signature of the Treasurer of the Company, R. R. Robbins. We also beg to inform those who deal in the spurious article, that legal proceedings will be instituted against them, upon any well authenticated instance of their selling a counterfeit or colorable imitation of any of our products.

THE RIVER was falling very slowly yesterday with four feet water in the canal in the evening by the mark. During the previous twenty-four hours the river had receded only an inch at the head of the falls, and three inches at Portland. The weather was rainy in the morning, but clear and quite warm in

At Pittsburg, yesterday, the river was rising, with four and a half feet water in the channel. The rise was from the Allegheny, and we learn that there had been more snow on the mountains. At Cincinnati yesterday, the river had fallen only four inches.

The Mariner, that arrived from Memphis yesterday, reports a slight swell in the Mississippi, with six and a half feet water on the bars, above Memphis, and six feet in the Ohio, which was falling fast as far down as Caseyville. On Saturday she met the Atlanticat No. 8, and passed a side wheel boat hard and fast on the rocks at Cache Island.

The Mariner went to Cincinnati last night to dis charge her cotton. She had 880 bales, and the clerk, Mr. Drave, has our thanks for a memorandum. She returns direct after discharging her cargo, and is advertised to leave this port for Memphis on Saturday.

The cotton could not be reshipped from here, and Capt. Archer was compelled to take it to Cincin-

The Poland was due from Memphie last night with 700 bales of cotton for the East. As she has no privilege to reship, Capt. Frisbee will be com-pelled to take her to Cincinnati to deliver the cotton. mediately to load for Memphis.

The Mississippi was rising slowly at mphis Saturday, but falling below that point. At Island 34 the last arrivals report eight feet water, and six feet at Helena. At Napoleon the Mississippi is forty-five feet below high water mark, and ten inches INSURANCE CASE.-The Poland, as we have heretofore stated, lost sixteen bales of cotton overboard in collision with a snag, which broke her guard. The cotton was subsequently recovered by officers of the boat, and reshipped on the Fred Tron. The atter boat in turn was sunk, and the cotton likely to be lost. It is covered by the insurance taken out when first shipped on the Poland at Memphis? The Fort Wayne, from New Orleans, vesdischarged a large quantity of foreign salt in ion to the crates of ware heretofore reported.

The St. Louis Democrat of yesterday has the following paragraph about building new boats for the Memphis trade. We guess Pittsburg is too anuch Abolition to build good boats for the Southern waters:

The Memphis Packet Company has decided on building two new boats for the St. Louis and Memphis trade, and Capt. Dan Able will soon proceed the Ohio, probably Pittaburg, to contract for them. One of them, which will probably be called the Cairo, will be furnished with the machinery of the famous Jas. H. Lucas. She will have accommodations for only officers and crew, and will be light, capacious, and fast. It is to be built by January next. The new boat will be $25 feet long, 40 feet beam, and 63, feet hold.

The Cincinnati Commercial has the folring in reference to the loss of the Fred Tron : The Fred Tron was in her fourth season, and re-ently purchased by Captains Fenton, Kyle, and oth-ers, for $12,000, and insured for $9,000 in the Ameri-can, Central, and National offices of this city. Mr. V. Shinkle left for the wreck last ovening, for the pur-pose of applying his large marine pumps for raising her, if deemed practicable.

The Mariner left Menaphis Oct. 18th. at 8 o'clock P M; met Fanny Bullitt at Island 34; Cora Anderson at Island 39; D G Taylor at Booths Point; Messenger still lying in bend of 14; met Atlantic at head of Island 8, seen side-wheel boat on rocks at Cash Island; ant John Gault, Lady Jackson and Judge Torrence in Chain; Rocket at Paducah; John Raine at Cottonwood bar, Aurora below Shawnestown; Lady Franklin at Uniontown; Peytona at Fredonia; 6½ feet in Mississippi to Memphis; 6 feet in Ohio and falling est as far down as Caseyville.

OFFICE OF LOUISVILLE COURIER, WEDNESDAY EVENING, October 24, 1860. The improvement in the Cotton market South, and the increased sales of that staple have had an im-proving influence upon the tone of the general markets elsewhere, despite the political revultions and the universal tightness of the Money market West and South. The Cotton crop is an immense one, and the foreign demand increasing, which has much eased the Money market South. Here it continues about as stringent as ever, with no disposi-tion whatever to speculate in any leading article of commerce, including Hog and the Hog product, our great staples of trade. The Tobacco crop in Ken-tucky is estimated to fall rather below the usual average, owing to its late growth and the sudden osts of late that damaged most of the unhoused crop. The old crop on hand, however, is quite abundant, if not fully equal to the demand for consumption at the prevailing good prices. The weather has been of a very mild character this week, with one light frost, and a steady rain to-day.

The river had been rising early in the week, but it has since fallen considerably, though still at a fair stage for the season. Freights are maintained, hough scaree to all points.

Our quotations apply to wholesale prices, unless the catrary is specified. A small advance is asked on these quotations for small lots. ALCOHOL-The market has been dull, and prices have declined. We quote at 34¢ for 76 $9 cent., 40¢ for 92 P cent., 424 for 96 P cent., and 434 for 98 P BAGGING AND ROPE-The demand for these staples has been larger during the past week, with heavier transactions than we have had for some time past. The sales have amounted to 475 pieces Bagging at 1434 for hand loom, and 157 for power loom. Sales of 835 coils machine Rope at 87. BEESWAX—We quote Beeswax at 39@327 W D., with a fair demand. BEANS—We quote White at 75†@$1 25 $2 bushel.

BRAN, MEAL, &c—Feedstuffs remain unchanged. We quote Bran at $13 00. We quote Shorts at $17; Shipstuff at $18; Middlings at $25@$26; Meal is unchanged at 57@60¢.

CANDLES AND SOAP—There has been a smale demand for Candles at 16¢ for 13 oz.; 18¢ for 15 oz., and 19¢ for 16 oz. The stock of Soap on hand is light, and we note small sales at $1 60@ $2 50 % ho ting to weight. We quote Palm Soap at 67 COTTON AND COTTON YARNS-We quote good Middling Tennessee and Alabama at 10%@11¢. Salos of 96 bales Inferior at 8½¢@9½¢. Pittsburg and Maywille Cotton Yarus sell in large lots at 7½, 8½, and 9½¢ $\partial dozen, on 4 months' time, for numbers 700, 600, and 500. In small lots to the country, an advance of %¢ is required. Sales of £75 bales Batting at 11¢.

CHEESE-Cheese continues to arrive freely, and the demand this week has been good, with sales of 575 boxes at 10@10%$ for W.R., and 11$ for Hamourg. The market closed firm at the above quote supply on hand. We quote Pittsburg in barges afloat at 8% 0.9%¢, and in small lots, delivered, at 12%¢. FEATHERS—The market during the week has been firm, with a good demand, and sales of 3,750 hs for shipping at 45¢. FISH—The market is quiet, and we quote No.1, iarge Mackerel, at $18 50 @ barrel, and $9 75@$10 for half barrels. No. 3, large, we quote at $12 for bbls and $6 50 for half bbls. No. 3, small, are selling at $8 75 $8 bbl. We quote White Fish at $1 50@$4 75 for half barrels. FRUIT-In Fruit there is but little doing, and we quote Raisins at $2 65 for M. R., and $2 90 for Layer, in boxes; half and quarter boxes are sold in proportion. Oranges at $1 25@4 75; Lemons, none; Figs at 10@12% † $2 B; Dates $4. Sales to-day of Dried Apples at 800; 90 buscels Dried Peaches at

FLOUR AND GRAIN-The market has remained about the same as last week, with a good demand for home consumption and shipping. The sales have amounted to 2,136 bbls at $5 for Superfine, $5 25@$5 50 for Extra and $6@$6 25 for Fancy Fa brands. For Wheat the market is firm, and all that arrives is freely taken by city dealers and millers at $1 05@$1 15 for prime red and white, but for small lots of extra choice a small premium on the above quotations would be paid. The sales have reached 5,000 bushels. There has been a good dem Corn for feeding, with sales of 8,150 bushels at 57@ 60¢ for mixed, and 62@64¢ for prime white shelled, sacks included. Sales of 750 sacks ear Corn at 55¢. Oats have been quiet and dull, with sales of 1,500 bushels at 35@36¢. No change in Rye or Barley. Sales to-day of 562 bbls Flour at $5 25@$5 75; 3,5900 oushels Wheat at $1 05@$1 15.

GUNNY BAGS-Prices remain unchanged, with small sales at 13@14¢.
GINSENG—Ginseng is unchanged, with a good demand at 50.

GROCERIES-There has been a fair demand for Sugar for home consumption, and the sales have reached 142 hhds at 8%$ for Porto Rico, and 9@9%$ for prime to choice New Orleans. During the week there has been an increased firmness manifested on the part of holders, owing to the unfavorable news which is daily being received from the South in re-gard to the growing crop. There was a decided up-ward tendency in prices at the close, though no advance has yet been established. Molasses has been sulted in sales of 212 bbls at 39@42¢ for prime plantation. There is a fair demand for refined Sugars, with sales of 142 bbls at 10%@11¢. Coffee is firm, with a good demand, and the transactions have amounted to 341 bags prime Rio at 15%@15%4. Sales of 5 tierces Rice at 5%4. Sales to-day of 23 hhds Sugar at 81/09%c; 85 bags Coffee at 151/0151/6

POTATOES, &c.-Potatoes are plentiful, with but a small inquiry, and the market has been dull, with sales of 225 bbls at $1 25@$1 50 from store. Apples are quiet, with sales at $1 75@ $2 00. Onions are i demand at $2 00.

PROVISIONS AND LARD—Mess Pork has been exceedingly dull during the past week, and during the first portion of the week a few small sales were made at $19, but a few days later a decline of 50 € ? bbl was established, the market closing exceedingly dull at $18 50. The sales have reached 252 bbls at $18.50@$19. The demand for Bacon has been more active, owing to the light stock in the market, which has caused the planters to order more freely. This has caused an increased firmness on the part of holders, and owing to the light stock of Clear Sides in the market an advance of $\(\frac{1}{2} \) \text{$\frac{1}{2}$} was established, the closing price being 14; otherwise the market re-mained unchanged. The sales of Bacon for the week have reached 246 casks at 93/4 for Shoulders, 123/ for Rib Sides, 13% for Clear Rib, and 14¢ for Clear Sides. There has been a fair demand for Hams, but owing to the light stock the sales have been limited, amounting to 60 tierces at 14¢ for plain canvased, and 15%¢ for sugar cured, at which price the market closed farm and bnoyant. There has been a good demand for Lard at 13%¢, but the sales have reached only 300 kegs. The stock of Lard in this city is very light, and not sufficient to meet the de-mand, which is the cause of the sales being so light. Sales to-day of 25 bbls Mess Pork at $18 50; 30 casks Bacon at former rates.
